

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20505

February 6, 1980

Dear Hermann:

Thank you for your letter of 25 January. Your expenses are being processed and you will receive a check in due course. The process is slow but reasonably sure.

I regret I was unable to remain for the discussion and the dinner. I had a very unpleasant, though intermittent, cough and didn't wish to detract from the even tenor of the occasion. By all reports the discussion was lively and very helpful. Your own contributions are especially praised.

It was a pleasure meeting you at last. You may recall that I missed you the last time you were here because I was on the sick list then too.

Sincerely,

Coordinator for Academic Relations

STAT

Professor Hermann F. Eilts
Boston University
University Professor of International
Relations
745 Commonwealth Avenue
Boston, Massachusetts 02215

Boston University

University Professors Program
745 Commonwealth Avenue
Boston, Massachusetts 02215
617/353-4020

January 25, 1980

STAT

Coordinator for Academic Relations
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Jim:

I greatly enjoyed last evening's session. Even though no definitive conclusions could be reached, and I frankly doubt such are possible, I thought it was very useful. I know that I benefitted from it.

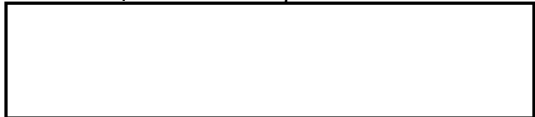

Stan Turner's letter of January 4th indicated that the Agency would reimburse me for travel costs and expenses of my trip. I do not know exactly what your procedures are in this regard, but I assume it is not too dissimilar from that followed by State. Accordingly, I attach an itinerary for the January 24-25 trip to Washington and back and the specific expenses incurred. Where available, receipts are included.

Please send the check to me at Boston University at the address on this letterhead.

I enjoyed meeting you and your associates.

Sincerely,

STAT

Hermann Frederick Hiltz
University Professor of International Relations,
Research Professor of History and Political Science

HFE/en

Dear Herman:

Thank you for your letter of 25 January. Your expenses are being processed and you will receive a check in due course. The process is slow but reasonably sure.

I regret I was unable to remain for the discussion and the dinner. I had a very unpleasant, though intermittent, cough and didn't wish to detract from the even tenor of the occasion. By all reports the discussion was lively and very helpful. Your own contributions are especially praised.

It was a pleasure meeting you at last. You may recall that I missed you the last time you were here. I was also because I was on the
on the side but then too.

Sincerely